ANNOUNCEMENT

Please note important information from New York State Department of Taxation and Finance.

In a memo dated July 18, 2010, it states:

“The sales of Abstract of the Real Property, is the sale of taxable information services!”

Effective September 1, 2010, sales tax will be applied on our information products and services.

If you have a “Resellers Certificate” on file there will be certain searches that will not be taxable.

If you currently have a “Resellers Certificate,” we request that it be forwarded to our office, as soon as possible.

Sales tax will be applied until such a certificate has been provided.

You may also log into www.nystax.gov for more updated information on this ruling

Sincerely,

Express Research Services
